

PLASTICS GROUP Vision Statement

We will conduct our business with honesty, integrity, and fairness with customers, suppliers, and associates.

We will provide products and services that meet or exceed our customer's needs and expectations.

We will establish and review quality objectives, and continuously improve our processes to meet those objectives.

We will provide the working environment and the training for our associates that inspire a total commitment to the above principles.

Joe Comitale
Executive Vice President